Behold I will send My Messenger and He shall prepare the way before Me; and He for whom you are waiting shall suddenly come to the temple of the Lord, even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight, behold, He shall come, says the Lord of Hosts.

Malachi 3

Behold the Lord shall come' - and He came. When Jesus was born in Bethlehem Herod the King became mightily disturbed. He gathered all his priests and scribes together asking them where the Christ would be born. It was his constant call. He was very agitated. When the Magi appeared on his doorstep he questioned them for hours.... 'what time did the star appear? What did they know...?' Having received the information he then sent the Magi off to Bethlehem with the instruction that if they found the baby they were to come back and let him know where he might find it because he would like to go and worship him also.

So the story goes. You probably know it well. The Magi did find the Babe in a manger; they were told in a dream not go back to the King; Joseph also had a dream instructing him to take Mary and the Babe into Egypt and to stay there until otherwise instructed. The King was very upset... what did he do? He sent his soldiers to kill every baby born in Bethlehem and surrounding villages from recent birth up to two years old.

Then was the prophecy of Jeremiah fulfilled. When Herod died once again the angel came to Joseph instructing Him to go back to Israel. When Joseph heard that Archelaus had become King over Judea he became very nervous. Once again, in a dream he was told to go to Galilee. Thus it was that the family came to Nazareth. That which had been told by the prophet; - 'He shall be called a Nazarene' - the fulfilment of the promise had begun.

Just as mankind is tempted so Jesus was tempted. In the wilderness He fasted for 40 days and 40 nights; eventually He became very hungry. That was His testing time. He was tested three times before He gave His final answer to Satan: 'Get away Satan for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve.' Then He was left alone.

Just as mankind is tempted so Jesus was tempted. In the wilderness He fasted for 40 days and 40 nights; eventually He became very hungry. That was His testing time. He was tested three times before He gave His final answer to Satan: 'Get away Satan for it is written, You shall worship the Lord your God and Him only shall you serve.' Then He was left alone.

Why is it that you are so afraid to trust God? What is it that you have come to earth to do? There is a difference between testing and trusting. Throughout all the years before Jesus' birth the earth was being prepared for an awakening. History gives us a picture of changes from age to age. Man could travel to other countries by various means. When he stayed in any of those countries he had with him his knowledge. As he travelled that knowledge grew. In Jesus' time there were three great countries (Races) – Romans, Greeks and Jews. Out of Jerusalem the roads went North- East – west- and South. Travel was by road and or sea. Money changed hands – honestly or dishonestly- man became rich, struggling or poor: about the same as today! There were robbers on the roads and pirates on the sea. Who would have thought that anything good could have come out of this mayhem!

Then Jesus was born. How was His message spread around the world! By land and sea. Although the Romans had begun the business of shipping goods; it was also known that the Jews were also good at business and they too owned ships that travelled around the world – as it was known in those days. Thus was the beginning of the spreading of the Christ message passed from country to country and from person to person.

Do you not think that God had a hand in this organisation of spreading His message to the world!

Language was just as much a problem then as it is today. Greek was a language spoken throughout the world; as was Roman (Latin) Jewish (Aramaic) The main language used was Greek. Then came the exile and Jews were scattered all around the world: Setting up Temples and businesses; becoming important in all businesses and government transactions – even though they were not very much liked. All the time they were waiting for the promised Messiah.

Many people of other religions joined the religion of the Israelites. It was the only one that said with “sure and certain knowledge” that the ‘Saviours of the world' would come. Because of this, approximately two hundred years before the Christ was born in Bethlehem, the Hebrew Bible was translated into Greek. Now Jew and Gentile read from the same Bible. The promise of the birth was spread further and wider.

In my travels I found this verse. I do not know who wrote it; I hope they will forgive me for borrowing it. It is very relevant to all that is going on in the world today.

*“There were longings, yearnings, strivings
For the good they comprehend not.
And the feeble hands and helpless
Groping blindly in the darkness
Touched God's right hand in that darkness
And were lifted up and strengthened.”*

Before the birth of Christ the world was full of thinkers. Man trying to make the best of the 'religions' they had to live by. Very few understood the philosophy. Even though many knew the difference between right and wrong. They must have had a conscience. There were many students studying the philosophies of life without coming to any conclusion – except that there were many who thought that they were right. Seems quite similar to the modern day!

Who then was ready for the Christ? We know that Jesus chose ordinary men, with questioning minds, to be His disciples. But He never denied women the opportunity to sit in on His teaching classes.

We know that there was one who betrayed Him. We know that the loyal followers' aim was to spread the Christ Message where they lived, by the way that they lived and many carried that message throughout the world. The disciples declare their own problems. St. Paul reveals his own problems, his own struggles before he came to realise the Truth of the Christ. He lost his blindness; he could see.

Before the birth of Christ the world was full of thinkers. Man trying to make the best of the 'religions' they had to live by. Very few understood the philosophy. Even though many knew the difference between right and wrong. They must have had a conscience.

One of those who had prophesied the coming of the Christ had at His birth been 'dead' five hundred years. The Christ was born at a time of change within the world. It had completely lost the true meaning of what the 'Garden of Eden' really stands for. The world today bears a similar resemblance to that of long ago. "Too many cooks spoil the broth". Anyone who works in a kitchen knows that you never upset the chef. Great Nations have come and gone.

It takes courage to change a way of life. But every effort made to carry out that promise brings about an understanding even greater; a true and certain knowledge of the love of God for His children and of the promise that He made to those who carry out His work among all His children.

One of those who had prophesied the coming of the Christ had at His birth been 'dead' five hundred years. The Christ was born at a time of change within the world. It had completely lost the true meaning of what the 'Garden of Eden' really stands for. The world today bears a similar resemblance to that of long ago.

"Too many cooks spoil the broth". Anyone who works in a kitchen knows that you never upset the chef. Great Nations have come and gone. Some are still great but have forgotten why and how they became great. Travelling around the world today does not take as long as it did in Roman times. You can go on a journey without moving out of your chair. Christmas greetings sent from the UK can be received face to face almost instantly via the modern equipment. Much more information is known about the world, the sun, the moon, the stars, other planets – we have even been to some of them – how the mind of man has expanded – but in what direction!

Yet in the hearts of mankind there is always an urge for more information – much good has been learned which has been useful and helpful to many people. But there is always that question – how much money can be made – what can ‘I’ gain? The list is endless.

In every aspect of life the Christ exists – whether He is known and recognised or not. Are we once again on the edge of events in which the Christ has not been included? God loves His children. How many families are missing loved ones this Christmas – so many people know what it is like to lose a son or daughter (for they too fight on the front line in these days). Who remembers that God gave His only begotten Son that who so ever believeth on Him shall not perish – but have everlasting life. Brighten the lives of those around you. The whole world is in need of upliftment – a song to sing and a story to tell.

Celebrate the life of the ‘babe in the manger’ who came for the benefit of all mankind. Be alert as you go about your daily life for if you truly wish to know – just ask the question. For the Christ will come.

how much you can give until you actually give. The hill of spiritual attainment cannot be climbed by offering earthly gifts.

As you do Gods’ work daily you find the satisfaction and completion for the soul within you. Climb every mountain, ford every stream and you will be able to see and understand how the power of God goes into action because of your effort.

God bless you

† News from Headquarters

Seaon's greetings from headquarters. What a remarkable year it has been. Thinking of everything that has gone on in our lives as well as all that has gone on around the world – it certainly has been a very testing time. Once again I have to tell you that a few more of our 'Friends' have gone Home. They will be missed and remembered over the Christmas period. One of our Ministers had to undergo hospital treatment and is on the way to recovery. We hope that she will be back to her usual self before too long.

To those of you who have worked so hard throughout the year to carry on the work of spreading the 'Message' we give a huge thank you. As always the call goes out – tell us how you are getting on in these difficult days. Our 'Message' is so desperately needed – even throughout the world.

We have had several students going through the various courses over the year. It is so pleasing to know that there are still those who would like to carry on the work of Winifred Moyes – even after a hundred years. Those in the 'Higher Life' are watching with great interest the progress that is being made. I am confident that they are giving us a tremendous amount of support and as much help as they are aloud. We always have to remember that the decisions we make and the work that we do affects everyone throughout the whole world. You may think that what you do has no effect upon anyone – not even yourself. That is most definitely not so. One day you too will find out what you have achieved. Your efforts are never not worthwhile.

You will be pleased to hear that we have had all the repairs completed from the damage done by the 'Break-in'. Thank you to the workmen. Now it is just a matter of getting the inside back to normal.....

Thank you to our staff, as always, for all their hard work and dedication throughout the year. It is very much appreciated. We would be lost without them.

From all of us at Headquarters, the Trustees, and the Staff we wish you all the many blessings of Christmas and a Healthy and Happy New Year.

News from the Churches

Clarendon Road Sanctuary, Leeds

 oving greetings and many blessings from Harrogate and Leeds Sanctuary to you all.

Autumn is here and we feel the changes in the weather, yet we know we can still enjoy our gardens, take a walk in the park, or drive out into the countryside and experience nature in all its glory.

It was with sadness that I heard of the passing of Mr. Colin Campbell Murdoch to the Higher Side of life. Colin will be missed by his family and the many acquaintances who knew him. He was a staunch supporter of The Greater World Association and the Leeds Sanctuary on Clarendon Road. He gave many years of devoted Service being a member of the Board of Trustees in London. Serving as a Committee Member, Spiritual Healer, Group Leader and an ex-President of the Leeds Sanctuary. He was always ready to help whenever possible whether it be maintaining family cars, houses or at Church, ferrying neighbours to various appointments or visiting the sick or housebound.

As he enters a new way of life he will be welcomed as a true and faithful servant. Thank you Colin for your friendship, life and service. God bless you. Rest in peace.

On September 22nd we celebrated our 89th Anniversary of Praise and Thanksgiving. The Service was led by Revd. Angela Marshall. The address and Demonstration was given by Revd. Paul Merryweather. Prayers and Readings were given by members of the congregation. A selection well-known and well-loved hymns were sung accompanied on the organ by Marley Watson. Everyone was invited to the tea-room for refreshments and to share a little social gathering. All agreed it was an uplifting afternoon.

On Sunday October 6th we celebrated the Harvest Festival giving thanks for all that we receive and remembering the harvest of souls. The Harvest table was filled with all manner of good things which were later blessed and donated to Leeds City Council Social Services Department Rapid Response Team.

Forthcoming Services and events include a Service of Remembrance on November 10th; an Afternoon of Private Sittings on Saturday, November 23rd and a Service on Advent Sunday leading us to the celebrations of Christmas. Our Carol Service will be held on Sunday 22nd December. Then there will be no Services until Sunday, January 5th 2025.

Always remember that as we shine our light into the World Our Father God makes everything possible. Pray for all conditions within our world and help others to come to an understanding of the power of prayer. Look after each other and be aware of all that can be done to help those in need. Follow the guidelines and regulations as circumstances change and be ready to move into a new year with a positive attitude.

My grateful thanks to all our Speakers and Helpers for their continued help, support and love.

All of us associated with Leeds Sanctuary send love, health, happiness and all that you wish for yourselves and your loved ones. Have a Blessed Christmas and pray that we may find love, peace and harmony worldwide.

Love and blessings in all that you do.
God bless you all

The Christ Mission of Zodiac

Unto us a Child is born” (Isaiah 9-6) – so sang the ancient prophet and teacher and 750 years later that Child was born, was seen and heard by another Hebrew Teacher – Zodiac – who recognized Him to be the Messiah – Who was fulfilling the prophecy. That Hebrew Teacher of 2,000 years ago has been sent by The Messiah to us – to teach us – that is why The Greater World came into being..

When studying the words of the messenger it is necessary to study anew the teachings of the One who sent him. The One who sent him – Jesus the Christ – seeks Messengers in the body, messengers who will deliver the words of TRUTH entrusted to them. That again is why The Greater World is here. We have pledged ourselves to propagate the Divine Truths revealed to us, encouraged by Divine assurance – “My word shall not return unto me void but shall accomplish that whereto I sent it.” Other words we should remember were spoken by Jesus – “You have not chosen Me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that you should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain.” Those words were spoken to men whom the Christ had Himself trained. They apply to His disciples of all ages. They reveal the imperative necessity for His messengers to be quite certain of the message they have to deliver – hence the need for study, so that the words can be spoken with authority. Those text books will be the Bible and the Zodiac Messages.

THE HOLY BIBLE

No writings have been subjected to more exhaustive tests than these. We know that, though an incomplete record, the history and truths contained therein have weathered the closest analysis and criticism. The original writings have been studied and restudied. Many students have made translations, especially during the past years. There are differences in the translations - but they are differences of text and NOT of substance. We have to accept the work of others.

The Zodiac Messages

These represent a great mass of material. They were recorded by word as delivered, checked and re-checked before publication. They were spoken in modern English. Their authentication is beyond dispute.

- (a) Words have their meanings
- (b) Zodiac’s choice of words and phrasing of sentences reveals extreme care and thought in preparation
- (c) There is no juggling with words. They have their value and meaning, their vibrations in conveying thoughts to the minds of listeners and readers and were chosen with a care that enables us to accept them in their commonly understood modern meanings.

Identity of the Communicator

The description he has given of himself bears the impression of truth. Also, he has been seen many times, sometimes simultaneously with a manifestation of The Christ Presence. Those manifestations confirmed his oft-repeated statement – “I am instructed by the Master Christ”.

“Happy are those who study truth. Happy are those on our side of life who help them; and how thankful are they when the gifts are used for the furtherance of the Christ Mission.”

In the earlier Messages that Zodiac gave his method was not dissimilar from that of our Lord Himself. When the Christ began His Ministry He gave the Sermon on the Mount, which is an exposition of the teaching He was going to propagate. The rest of His life was an expression of that teaching. In the earlier Messages of Zodiac there are quite vital pronouncements which in later ones he takes for granted and expands.

Zodiac speaks: “I was an old man when the Beloved sought to bring Truth to an unbelieving people. I saw Christ -and His Love made me free. I was an old man versed in much, the so-called sciences of the day – they were mine. I taught those grown to man’s estate regarding the Law of Moses, regarding the Planets, regarding conditions which appertained to our little world. I was admitted by all as a man with a mind that had grasped much but when Christ stood before me with His gentleness and the wonder of His Love, as a little child in wisdom was this man. When Christ stood before me I read from His eyes the Truth – that He was indeed the promised Messiah. From then onward I sought to learn afresh.”

“Then, out of this night of complicated thinking, out of the greyness of dissatisfaction which was within, out of my narrow, blunted life I stepped, for Christ came. Christ came and brought me the light that never fades; brought me the Love which no words can tell. I watched Him. I was used to judging human nature in all its forms and as I watched I marvelled and as I listened – how I loved! This is the whole explanation of my mission upon earth – the mission which has been entrusted to me; I SAW CHRIST and He made me free!”

The testimony of the Christ – “I am The Way, the Truth and the Light” : “I am the door”; “I am the Good Shepherd”; “I am the Light of the World”; “I am the Bread of Life” ; “Do this in Remembrance of Me”; “Father, for all these are Mine and Mine are Thine and Thou gavest them to Me” ; “I go to prepare a place for you”; “Father, I will also, that these Thou has given to Me be with Me where I am, that they may behold Thy glory.” “Glorify Me with thine own self with the glory that I had with Thee before the world was.” “I have finished the work Thou gavest Me to do and now I come to Thee.”

“I go unto the Father, and whatsoever you shall ask in My Name that will I do that the Father may be glorified in the Son”.

May God bless this revelation of the Lord Jesus Christ which has been presented to you which establishes the Divinity of Jesus, the rock on which this Christ Mission is built.

One Christmas morning in 1930, speaking at Kensington, Zodiac asked: “Can you not grasp that Jesus of Bethlehem is blessing the whole world?”

We offer our prayers in the name of Jesus, the Healer of all mankind

“O God, send down Thy Power – Thy Power, Thy Peace, Thy quieting influence – send down Thy Power so that Thy children, in faith, in hope, and in anticipation, may receive Thy Healing Power in abundance, each according to their need. Amen”

Healing Prayer

Loving Father of all mankind, once more we commend ourselves into Your care. Strengthen us and give to us Your peace. Grant that as we go through our daily life we shall send forth Your love and deep concern for the welfare of all mankind. Help us to spread Your Light into the world in the here and now; for all mankind is suffering in so many different ways from the lack of understanding that they are indeed Your children. As we go about our daily life may we find that inner strength, which sustains and heals all manner of ills that are so prevalent at this time to all people in every land, in order that we can send forth Your wondrous healing power so that it may surround them, comfort them and heal their hearts and minds and bodies. May Your Loving Light encompass Your children so that they can become aware of Your glorious plan for the raising up of all humanity. In the Name of our Lord and Saviour, Jesus the Christ. Amen

How Spirit C Can Sto

The sunshine of the earth draws the physical mind, but so many are under the influence of the Holy Spirit. If your eyes could be opened you would realise the great power that is being brought to the earth by those who seek to learn concerning Divine Truth.

There are many who question the purpose of Spirit Communion; some deride and criticise; however, there are those who pay great deference to that which has brought them new life and understanding of God and His purpose. However with the young of today there raises in the mind so many questions. If those questions are not answered in a logical and practical way you will find that the youth will stray. The reason why your churches and chapels are not filled is because so many have sought but they have not found – this is not the Will of God. It should be within the province of the young and the mature to ask those questions which matter regarding the return of spirits, the reason why they return and how it benefits mankind.

First you have to remember that war with material weapons is but one phase of war. War goes on all the time but the point is this: Whether the battle is constructive or destructive; whether something worthwhile can be gained through the struggle or whether it throws back humanity into something resembling barbarism again.

Communion op War

WHY SHOULD WE REJOICE WITH THOSE WHO LAID DOWN THEIR LIVES FOR THEIR BRETHREN

You are well aware that when the call came for defence of the country, the land of their birth, there were many who came forward without being commanded to do so. You may say that many were slain: You are to be reminded that the physical body is but one body out of the countless garments which will clothe the Soul in due time to come. As you would not mourn over the laying aside of a physical coat so also you are requested not to grieve because the body of flesh has been exchanged by those heroes for a body of greater strength and greater power. It is all part of the evolutionary stages. It matters so much how the body was discorced and the conditions of the mind which governed the body.

Surely you would not compare the passing out of one young in endeavour but high in spiritual aspiration with those who are old and live for self; those who are a torment to the ones who must minister to them? Is there anything to be desired in prolonging the life of the physical body when the downward trend has been started, so far as character is concerned? Those loved ones of yours passed out into a land of opportunity. What they saw was this: That even though it seemed they had failed, they were part of a pattern and their example

There is not one with a weakened body who cannot be certain that amongst their forbears over the generations there were those who sinned – sinned against the body and against the Holy Spirit within.

had left a cleansing force to raise the conditions of the earth. War with material weapons is but one phase of war and a travesty of that greater war which both men and women witness after an ill-spent life when they must reap that which they have sown in ignorance and in folly.

Think of the wars that are still going on even though that which you name peace has been acclaimed. There is the war against disease; the war against the aftermath of the battle; the war of the materialism of this world – the war which shall enlist the hearts and minds of countless thousands who have seen something of the Spirit Power and believe in God and the continuity of life for evermore.

HOW THE “EVILS” OF THE WORLD CAME TO PASS

How can Spirit Communion do its part in stopping war; war in all its phases; those wars which must be fought until man is redeemed from his lesser self. If you will face fact and exercise the thinking powers of your mind, you will see at once that disease and poverty and material wars all arise from one thing alone – the spurning of the Christ path. There is not one with a weakened body who cannot be certain that amongst their forbears over the generations there were those who sinned – sinned against the body and against the Holy Spirit within. This is not criticism of those in the past – neither must we overlook the follies and the weaknesses of those of today. In time these will be counted amongst the forbears, the ancestors of those who are suffering upon the earth. Can you understand the responsibility, that cause and effect, are the inescapable things for they belong to Divine Law.

While thinking of the horror side we also have to consider those many who live a life of duty, who ignore their lesser selves, who deny themselves because they believe that God is their Father and they wish to be something like the Christ. These are the power bringers who in due course will be able to stop the necessity for war: War against neighbour, war against cruelty in the heart and mind of so many ; the war against torturing animals and the neglect of duty towards Nature in her many forms; the war against insanity and blindness and lameness and those horrible diseases of the soul which are the result of the exercise of free-will.

It may take a long time but you are fighting for posterity. It is only those who are very young and very ignorant who will try to argue the fact that the abuse of the body will bring on consequences. However, they only have to go to their local doctor to find out the truth. Perhaps within their own body there are the early signs of weakness due to the abuse of free-will by those belonging to them in the past – when men and women poisoned their systems by wrong feeding and alcohol and other excesses. You cannot imagine the agony it is to those who are free who watch their children and grandchildren paying the price for that which they did; perhaps in ignorance. yet... not altogether in ignorance because they had the Bible and they know that the Christ had called them to follow Him.

It may take a long time but you are fighting for posterity. It is only those who are very young and very ignorant who will try to argue the fact that the abuse of the body will bring on consequences.

Today you are faced with grave problems. The problems of reconstruction, bringing back and finding a place for thousands of men and women – to which they are entitled.

THE COMING WAR OF COMPETITION

Today you are faced with grave problems. The problems of reconstruction, bringing back and finding a place for thousands of men and women – to which they are entitled. This will bring about a terrible war – a war of competition. As a result of that war there will be a dreadful conflict between man and his God. Some will be embittered. Some will have turned away from religion because of the injustices of their lot. Those who still pray - yet seemingly for a time God is not interested in them.

If you want to meet such as these – give out the truth. Remind them that in the material war it was only the highly trained men, the reliable ones who could be trusted -who were sent on dangerous tasks. The same LAW applies! There will be many pioneer souls who may find that they are carrying the burdens of another and that there is no respite for them. On the day of their trial and darkness give them the truth ... They are the ones who are strong enough to walk alone. Yet Christ is always walking with them, bearing their cross – even as His cross was carried when physical weakness overtook Him.

THE ONLY WAY TO COMFORT THE BLIND AND MAIMED

This explanation is not enough. What is required is that there should be a definite effort to educate the young; to show them that while they are in a malleable state, that although earthly law may seem to be in a position to serve justice, Divine Law never fails – that what man loses today on the material side he gains in a spiritual sense; holding for ever gifts that shall never pass away.

What are you today to the blind? What are you to say to those who, so young, find themselves unwanted in the ranks of workers and the self-respected? Are they to be spurned? Are they to be allowed to sink back into the outer darkness of misunderstanding of God?

The sight you enjoy while in the physical body is as blindness to us. You can only see so little. Because your sight is limited so is its influence upon your understanding. Physical restrictions are a burden to many; yet because they are a burden and because they can be overcome in a measure by faith, by work and by seeking until TRUTH is found – in the hereafter they are shown as stepping stones to better things. Without those limitations man in the next state would then be graded as unemployed.

How often the minds of humanity are sought to allow them clear vision, that they might realise that life after death to those who believe and also to those who disbelieve is in fact a reality. It is built up on essentially practical lines.

You do not pass into a lovely country where everything is provided without any charge at all.

How often the minds of humanity are sought to allow them clear vision, that they might realise that life after death to those who believe and also to those who disbelieve is in fact a reality. It is built up on essentially practical lines.

*Everything in the World of Spirit that is good and beautiful and powerful has been earned.
You cannot rob others there!*

You are not surrounded with gifts, with things you have craved but failed to grasp while you were in the body. NO! You are seeing – also under Divine Law – how the beauty of your conditions rests entirely upon this: Your measure of contributing to beauty, while you were in the body; your gifts likewise.

Many a pauper, many a failure awakens and finds that everything to his mind has been readjusted. WHY? Because through his sufferings he had compassion upon the sufferings of others; that out of his poverty he shared the pence that still remained. These are the things which count. No man – no woman – passes into a condition which is not his or her own place; built up by their thoughts and still more, by their actions while the flesh claimed them. The lessons were learned or disregarded by the exercise of free-will.

WHY CRIMES ARE COMMITTED ON EARTH

Everything in the World of Spirit that is good and beautiful and powerful has been earned. You cannot rob others there! You cannot use the minds of others to bring to you the things you crave. You cannot steal the health of others by imposing upon them conditions of life and labour that reduce the body to a travesty of that intended by God. Spirit helpers return and they give you truth – as a man sows so shall he reap - (where have you heard that phrase before?)

The law of consequences for good but also for evil is worked out by startling reality and no evasion of the mind or the tongue satisfies when this short stage is over.

Do you think that the robber would continue his career if he realised that all those things he stole and the suffering involved had to be worked out; that he would stand as a pauper in the next stage of being? He does not believe in anything beyond the physical stage otherwise he would be afraid to commit his crimes. Those who are honoured in their day and yet also were as thieves and robbers, what is their position? Where is their clever mind? Where is their strong body? They are amongst the blind and the lame, as prisoners in a darkness that is profound. They are starving, they are parched, they threw away the wherewithal which should have brought to them the Bread of Life and the Waters that forever refresh.

WHAT WOULD PREVENT DREADFUL WAR?

Ambition – when interpreted by Spirit Beings bears a very different guise. Those who have excelled at the expense of others are not to be envied: Those who escape responsibilities and are able to push their burdens upon another – they are to be pitied – for their plight is dreadful indeed.

Do you think any nation would have the courage to go to war for the sake of stealing that which belonged to another if they had believed that which they had done had to be rectified in time to come? Thousands pass over in mental and

In regard to life as a whole and those things which are against the Law of Love – ask yourselves and others on sane and practical lines However much you may fence off the thought of tomorrow... tomorrow comes! What then! However much man may pray to forget, memory lives on. That which has been done is there to be seen as a living picture. The long, long task has to be commenced to retrieve and to pay back.

What of the sufferers! Those who have lost so much; the ones who feel that earthly life is robbed of all its joy because those they love are gone. What is their position? They are among the pioneers; the power bringers and the power holders. They are the ones promised by Christ - “Blessed are they who mourn for they shall be comforted!”

Words are useful – but their life is fleeting. Who is there to give back a lost child, a lost son, a lost husband or wife, a lost joy? Is there not a justification in those words? Christ has opened the door to allow His ministering angels to come back over the bridge between the two worlds and to tell you the truth.

SPIRIT SIGHT INTENDED TO BE THE GIFT OF ALL

Why is it that so many cannot see and hear those who have passed on ahead? Merely, because of the materialism and the disbelief of this material plane. It is God's Will that you in your homes should witness the presence of those dear ones; should feel their caresses; should hear their voices.

God gave man Free Will. Only by the purification of suffering and sacrifice will the gift be redeemed. But there are some today who can say with thankfulness; "My wounds are healed!" He who was dead – is alive. "I who sorrowed am comforted!"

The TRUTH has been made your own.

You in the body and those free from the body have started a new campaign. Together we want many more to join the Christ-Army; to have the faith and the courage and the knowledge to challenge the young in the flesh; to meet their legitimate questions; to give to them the answers which will satisfy their aching minds. There is not one child who has been properly brought up who does not long for an understanding God; who does not crave for explanation over the inequalities of physical life. These are the ones wanted by the Christ; who are willing to learn; who will have the courage to take their place amongst the pioneers; when they shall be given the power and they shall pass that power on to others.

HOW SPIRIT RETURN CAN BRING PEACE ON EARTH

Yes! Spirit return can stop war. It can ultimately wipe out disease and crime and the cruelty inflicted upon the young; upon animals and upon Nature as a whole. IF it takes time, surely this is the strongest argument of all that you should find followers NOW for in the degree of the number, so the time of emancipation shall be hastened. In the degree that you hold back, the responsibility has to be faced either here – but certainly in the Hereafter. For you are children of God, His sons and His daughters. You have inherited Divinity and in that Spark of Holiness within you are all the gifts, in miniature, as held by God Himself.

The wonderful hope embodied in this thought. How it sweeps away earthly restrictions and limitations and lack of education and opportunity. Within you is God. It depends upon you how quickly the prison house which holds God is cast asunder.

There are some who desire to understand more. Some who are willing to make those greater sacrifices which are essential to purchase understanding. That which is given to you is in the Name of the Christ – and you will all be blessed. Everyone has to question within themselves; answer those questions for the day. The day will come when individual lives will be unrolled and all the excuses that arise in the physical mind will be seen as the nonsense they represent. The scoffers and those who would deride will come up against reality – face their past and see the help which was given to them by the ministering angels – in the flesh and free from the flesh – which they repudiated.

But then the Light will stream upon them. Always remember that there is a second chance and still another chance for man! In the end each one has to be pure and perfect as the Christ. For He came to earth to teach man how to live, how to overcome this world and how to leave behind the blessings of peace for those yet to be born.

The workers are blessed. In the Name of the Master forge on. Do not let the obstacles dishearten you. Go to war against disharmony. Make up your mind that you will fight the battle right to the very end. For only by co-operation here and hereafter can peace come and remain and remain for evermore.

In the Name of the Holy Master – you are all blessed. Where two or three are gathered together in His Name – there He comes to bless.

MISS WINIFRED MOYES devoted her life to acting as the sole instrument for the inspired teachings of 'Zodiac' who in his earthly life was a teacher in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus. He chose the name 'Zodiac' to lift men's thoughts from the earth to the heavens'. Zodiac delivered 1,475 addresses between 1924 and 1957 at meetings which often attracted thousands of people. The teachings continued to inspire those enquiring into the meaning and purpose of life, the function of the natural gifts of Healing and Spirit Communion, and the reassurance of the immortality of the Spirit. Zodiac named his great work 'The Christ Mission', and it is upon this that The Greater World is founded.

The Parable of the Sower

“Behold a Sower went forth to sow; some seed fell on the roadside – and the fowls came and ate it. Other seed fell upon the rock, where there was not sufficient soil; and it sprang up earlier because the ground was not deep enough: But when the sun shone it was scorched. Because it had no root it dried up. Other seed fell among thistles and the thistles sprang up and choked it. Other seed fell in good soil and bore fruit, some one hundredfold and some sixty and some thirty. He who has ears to hear let him hear. “

Matthew 13:3 – 9

Parable means the placing of one subject by another as an illustration. In this case it is used for the purpose of spiritual things by familiar earthly objects or incidents. Parables can be found throughout the whole Bible. Jesus made use of parables for two reasons – those who would not accept the truth and those who really desired to know the truth and would not give up until they had found it. There is an illustration of this in Isaiah 6: 9-10.

A NEW METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

The birds of the air took some. These are the carriers that through their droppings may leave a seed somewhere to grow into maturity where the rock had broken through it was scantily clothed with moss and a little dust. It was not merely stony ground encumbered with flints and fragments of basalt amidst which the seed might find protection and might grow. But, lodged in the earth it becomes impregnated with the humidity left by the night dew and under the action of the morning sun it makes a feeble attempt to germination – but that is checked by the noon day heat. Even in parts where the rock is worn away, the ground is full of roots, thorns and weeds which deprive the seed of light and it is choked by the very shelter which they seem to afford. The soil in which the seeds grow is as good as could be desired. Too good, for the thorns grow so luxuriantly that they are often taller than the ears of corn which have managed to escape being choked by them. How few these are and what a sad sight, testifying as they do to the hopes of the sower, who does not know how to save his field from being spoiled by such rank growth. Why did he not prepare the ground by rooting up the thorns, which would have served to heat his oven!

Matt. 8 v 30 - : Eccles. 7 v 7

The sower has cast his seed into furrows made by the plough into the bosom of fertile and cultivated land ; there to receive in abundance the rain and the sun of the heavenly Father.

Matt 3 v 45

Look at the field; the harvest has been gathered, the gleaners are returning their arms with gleanings. Ps. 78 v 7

The reapers were disputing with the Master as to the wages he is paying them Matt. 20 v 2

The Master is thinking of enlarging his barns. The seed which he had sown produced some thirty, some sixty, some a hundredfold. Mark 4 v 8

He promises himself ease. Wherewith his soul shall be intoxicated. Luke 12: v 19

THE CROWD DISPERSED

Is 6 v 10 By hearing you shall hear and shall not understand; and seeing you shall see and shall not perceive. For the heart of this people

Even in parts where the rock is worn away, the ground is full of roots, thorns and weeds which deprive the seed of light and it is choked by the very shelter which they seem to afford.

But blessed are your eyes because they see and your ears because they hear. For many prophets and just men have desired to see the things that you see and have not seen them and to hear the things that you hear and have not heard them.

is grown gross and with their ears they have been dull of hearing; and with their eyes they have shut, lest at any time they should see with their eyes and hear with their ears and understand with their heart and be converted and I should hear them.

But blessed are your eyes because they see and your ears because they hear. For many prophets and just men have desired to see the things that you see and have not seen them and to hear the things that you hear and have not heard them. Matt 13 v 13-17 ; Mark 4 v11 – 12; Luke 8 v10; John 12 v 40

The seed is the Word of God, the word of the Kingdom and the sower is he who spreads it as his own word in the soul, which is represented by the different kinds of ground in the story.

The birds of the air are represented by the evil spirits who quickly pick it up. The unintelligent listener whose heart does not retain the divine seed because he takes no care of it and is not even aware that it has been taken away from him. Matt 4 v 15 ; Luke 8 v 12

He that receiveth the seed on stony ground is he that heareth the word and immediately receiveth it with joy. Yet he has not rooted himself. Matt 13 v 19 , only for a short time, until there rises tribulation and persecution because of the Word. He is presently scandalised.

He that receiveth the seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word and the care of this world and the deceitfulness of riches chokes up the word and he became fruitless. Matt 13 v 22 ; Mark 4 : 19 ; Luke 8 v 14

He that receiveth the seed upon the good ground is he that heareth the word and understands and bears fruit and yields one a hundredfold, another sixtyfold, and another thirtyfold.

Matt 13 v 23 ; Luke 8 v 15 ; Matt 13 v 8 ; Mark 4 v 20

Jesus came into the world to reveal to the world the truths of spiritual life. He would render them intelligible to our feeble understanding by clothing His teaching in the forms determined by our humanity. He spoke our language in order that our ears might become accustomed to that of our eternal Father. For in all that He was He was the inspired mouthpiece of the Eternal Father.

Jesus identifies himself with the sower. His Divine word is the seed. The stons represent the hardness of those hearts whose first impulses result in nothing. The thorns are the image of the cares and pre-occupations of the world and consequently the riches and pleasures. Finally the richness and the harvest in the good ground represents the fruitfulness of the truth in well-disposed souls which will vary in measure – as Zodiac so often tells us - according to the spiritual nature of the soul.

Jesus is the only sower from whom we may expect the good seed destined to become the bread of our spiritual life. “Man does not live by bread alone But by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God.”

The word is rightly compared to the wheat and the barley or the millet sown by the Master of the field. The field is our soul; the property of God, our father, creator and the inheritance of God, the Son, our Redeemer.

Our souls are incapable of bringing forth fruit of themselves. But – when they accept the seed from God they flourish. They expect the Word from Him through His Word made flesh so that there might be Light in the Darkness and Life in Nature.

Every ground is qualified to receive the seed, but not to make use of it because of the difference in preparation, which by its activity is measured certain intellects, disposed to fickleness, carelessness, wilfully

The comparison between the ground overgrown with brambles and wild-briar are the souls overwhelmed by earthly cares, the attractions of wealth and of pleasure; all the desires of pride and of passion; all the desires of pride and passion. Meantime the Divine Word produces no fruit and the deceived soul will find that on its' passing into the higher life, it is without merit and without hope, according to the words of the psalmist. Ps. LXXV.V6.

opposed, sceptics, dissipated minds, materialists.. etc...

The stone covered in moss with a think coating of moss where the good seed finds a temporary resting place is surely an image of those shallow sols whose apparent goodness when exposed to the fiery breath of trial so often ends in indifference and unbelief.

wealth and of pleasure; all the desires of pride and passion. Meantime the Divine Word produces no fruit and the deceived soul will find that on its' passing into the higher life, it is without merit and without hope, according to the words of the psalmist. Ps. LXXV.V6.

The difference of profit in the material order is equally noticeable in the spirit world. Which is why that, even in good soil we find a difference in the quality and there is an inequality even in souls that are good. Matt. 2 v 4

The abundance of the fruit depends upon the dispositions of the soul upon whom the word of God descends. “Take heed therefore how you hear” said Jesus. Luke 8 v 18

It has been said that if we take the sacred text literally, it would seem that the good seed only produces fruit in the sorry proportion of one to four, not a very consoling result. Only a quarter of the seed has fructified.

As the seed falls in good ground producing at least thirtyfold it follows that the profit is greater than the expenses. If it attains to the hundredfold the result is even more satisfactory. The it ust be remembered that the good ground is of greater space than the highways and stony ground that grows thorny thickets. Therefore, the conclusion is that the reaper will be paid according to his labour.

BUT – Jesus wishes all mankind to be saved an he thanked God that He had lost none of those who confided in Him. Matt 13 v 30. It is the angels who will gather the wheat into the granaries of the Lord – who will lead souls into eternal bliss. But first they will thrash the sheaves and separate the wheat from the chaff..... As you sow so shall you reap .

Jesus asked His disciples had they understood all these things. They answered in the affirmative. “Now no man lighting a candle covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under the bed, but setteth it upon a candlestick, that they who come in may see the light. For there is nothing hid which shall not be made manifest. Take heed what you hear. “He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.”

Luke 8 v16 – 18 ; Mark 4 21-23 ; Matt 13 v9

Now you have had the happiness to see what many prophets and just men have desired to see and have not seen. Do you think that you have a right to keep the truth hidden for yourself alone? The Light which enlighteneth every man cometh into this world.

You shall be judged according to your own judgement in what measure you shall mete – it shall be measured to you again. Matt 13 v 16-17 ; John 1 v9 ; Mark 4 v 24 ; 10 v 27

What you have heard in the silence of your own ear – preach it on the housetops, that nothing may remain hidden in the shade and that all may be known about that which are first seemed destined to remain a secret. “Every scribe instructed in the Kingdom of Heaven is like a man that is a householder – who bringeth forth out of his treasure new things and old.”

Matt 13 v 52 ; Acts 20 v 27 : 1 Cor 9 v 16: Luke 1:79

*“Behold I will send my messenger and He shall prepare the way before me; and He for whom you are waiting shall suddenly come to the temple of the Lord, even the messenger of the covenant, in whom you delight;
behold He shall come says the Lord of hosts.
But who can endure the day of His coming?
And who can stand when He appears?
For He is like a refiner’s fire and like fuller’s soap.
For He shall return to refine and purify the people like silver;
and He shall cleanse the sons of Levi and purge them like gold and silver, that they may offer the lord an offering in righteousness.
Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant to the Lord, as in the days of old and as in former years.
And I will come near to you for judgement;
and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers and against the adulterers and against those who swear falsely and against those who defraud the labourer of his wages, the stranger, the orphan and the widow;
and those who turn aside him who turns to Me and do not fear me, says the Lord of hosts. For I am the Lord. I change not.
There were things which those who revered the Lord spoke often one to another. The Lord gave ear and heard it. He wrote it in a book of remembrance for those who revere Him and for those who praise His name. And they shall be mine, says the Lord of Hosts, on that day when I will assemble the people; and I will have pity on them as a man pities his own son who serves him.
Then shall you return and see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who served God and those who served Him not.”*
