the spirit of fear but of power and of love and of good discipline.
Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord. Bear the hardships that go along with the preaching of the Gospel through the power of God.”*

Be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus. Endure hardships as a good soldier of Jesus the Christ. No man can be a soldier and also entangle himself with the things of this life.

Jesus said: “I am the bread of life; he who comes to me shall never hunger and he who believes in me shall never thirst. But I have said to you that you have seen me and yet you do not believe. Everyone my Father has given me shall come to me; and he who comes to me, I will not cast him out. For I came down from heaven, not merely to do my will, but to do the will of Him who sent me.”

“This is the will of Him who sent me; that I should lose nothing of all that He has given me, but should raise it up at the last day. For whoever sees the Son and believes in Him shall have life everlasting and I will raise him up at the last day. “

Jesus said: “I am the living bread – if anyone eats of this bread he shall live forever.”

Jesus said: “I am the bread of life. It is not like the manna which the forefathers ate and died. He who eats of this bread shall live forever.” The disciples found this hard to understand.

The soul is what gives life to the body. The body holds the soul and the spirit is its protector throughout the whole of life on earth. The true meaning of life, given by Jesus, becomes known and understood through His teachings and the application of those teachings being lived throughout earthly life leads to a quality of afterlife that has been earned by the individual.

Each life has its own reason for being. When it is cold and difficult and dreary it is easy to go on with the work in a very negative fashion. Whereas when it is bright and sunny and warm it is easy to go out and do great things. However, in the dark, dreary days it is still necessary to bring the love and light of the Christ into the lives of people who are in great need. So really, the all in all is that during both dreary and sunny days the attitude of the worker and the way in which the work is carried out, should always be in the Light of the Christ. Gaining access to the love and power of God, no matter who you are or what your earthly conditions are, it is not by what you do, or how wealthy you are but by what you are, what you say and how you regard others. It is by Living the Life which Jesus offers so freely, so that the power and love of God can be seen to manifest itself through you.

There will be testing days. As in all things earthly – so in all things spiritual.

When God gave the ‘Ten Commandments’ to the Israelites He gave the laws in one language. He was giving them the opportunity to live by those laws. However, we all know the history and many events that the Israelites had to go through. In much the same way that Great Britain was created – travelling through the pages of history until it is now as we know it today.

When God wanted the whole world to know the truth about the Life of Jesus and His Resurrection He spoke to each person in their own language. We know this is true because the disciples spoke to all the people; telling them the ‘Good News’. No person was saying to the other ‘what did he say’... they heard it straight from the individual who was speaking. “Everyone heard the message in their own language”.

A loving Father wished the message to be known to all His children; whoever they were; wherever they came from; in every language - the wonderful works of God – a loving and caring Father – was talking to them direct. Knowing this, it is impossible not to understand and to put into action the reason for our birth. “He who cometh unto me, I will in no wise cast out.” There is an old saying... “If God be for us who can be against us?”

What would the world be like if the law of God was universal? The negativities of the world would cease to hold governing power. You are able to recognise the good in the world and the bad. Do you ever ask yourself; ‘where do I stand in all that is going on around me?’ Do you have a place of peace? Do you ever wonder about your eternal prospects? Belief in God is only a foundation – a beginning – to the climbing of the pathway upon which His ‘Way of Life’ can be lived on earth with absolute confidence ‘in sure and certain knowledge of everlasting life’. When you can stand up and shout “I know that my Redeemer liveth”.

He will be living with you and working through you. With confidence, you will walk the pathway of the world – the pathway that you have chosen prior to your birth. Whatever position, post, function or capacity that might be. You know this because you have confidence in a love that is more powerful, more forgiving, more aware of what you truly are. He knows what you have come to earth to accomplish.

You will come to know so much more than many upon the earth – especially as to why it is in such a state of negativity as it is at the moment. By your losses you are being trained in loving compassion; by your kindnesses you are learning how to give without expecting reward. You learn how to give without expecting to receive on all levels. You begin to understand why it is not necessary to seek earthly 'greatness' as a gateway in the Kingdom of your maker.

There are many examples of lives lived on earth which because they chose to follow the Master were most unpleasant; they knew poverty and persecution and homelessness. Yet they remained faithful to the Christ up to the end. Their expression of love for mankind is the reason today for the way in which you live. When God calls your name will you say – 'Here I am, use me.' Or will the answer be – 'not today, I'm busy'. When you have opened yourself to a greater understanding then that which you have learned will always be within you and you will always be living with it in your consciousness. Goodness and mercy will follow you all your life.

We too can release prisoners from their cells. Our prayers, which carry a great light, go around the world at great speed. Giving confidence to one, love to another in the way of companionship, releasing another from pain and despair. The light of our prayers is stronger than the darkness.

Yet they remained faithful to the Christ up to the end. Their expression of love for mankind is the reason today for the way in which you live.

The work of God is never over. Do not be afraid to make a stand for that which you know to be true and necessary in the world today. The music of God's Land is sweeter than any on earth for it is the vibration of the soul, full of Light, sending out its love and its strength and its sound in every direction: Being received by those in need who rejoice in the love of a Father who cares about their need – they send forth a sound..... and so it goes on.

Are you ready to play your part in this wonderful revolution? God has given you knowledge of Himself, a love so great, so powerful, so necessary – but it needs to be shared – and only you can do that. Taking plays a great part in the life of human kind – you will not know how to give on a spiritual level or how much you can give until you actually give. The hill of spiritual attainment cannot be climbed by offering earthly gifts.

As you do Gods' work daily you find the satisfaction and completion for the soul within you. Climb every mountain, ford every stream and you will be able to see and understand how the power of God goes into action because of your effort.

God bless you

Zodiac Prayer

O God, our Father, grant that we may be able to leave self in its many deceptive forms and clothed In the garments of Light, which You have provided, may mingle with those of the bright spheres; those who bring their love into our homes by the gracious understanding love!

Teach how to learn of You: Give us that patience, that inward peace which shall show us that the storms of life lead on to that calm which no one can wrest from us.

Teach us that by giving ourselves, so we give to Thee: Thus we receive again: Teach us that a quiet heart, that a Soul which reaches out beyond things physical into those realms which are spiritual – that a quiet heart and a freed Soul can take the journey of experience untroubled, conscious of the protection all around, bound to Thee and separated from the earth, in the sense that the earth and what it holds no longer can grieve.

Give to us the gift of Holy Spirit in such measure that we may go our way having seen and felt with the Real Self: that we are companioned by our Loving Saviour; uplifted by our Comforter, guided by the One who goes in front.

Help us to make this understanding our own.

Amen

† News from Headquarters

Autumn Greetings from headquarters. Once again we have had a memorable three months. Believe it or not, we are still trying to find a good plumber. We finally resolved our battle with the gas boiler company: All we have to do now is find a responsible maintenance company. Then – Guess what!!!!!! Headquarters was broken into on the night of 10th July. The basement was a shambles and many of the contents damaged beyond repair. There was also severe damage done to the building which will require some serious repair – as and when we can find a maintenance man willing to do the job.

The news from our Affiliated Churches indicates that people are going to the churches for ‘messages’ and not the ‘message’. Sadly, over this period of time yet another church has closed due to lack of support and increased financial costs. When you think of all the effort made by the Founders and early members of The Greater World who gave their all to tell the people the ‘Message’. The history of the churches is quite remarkable and what some of those who were involved in getting the message across to the people went through is also quite remarkable. The sacrifices they made and those who are still making that sacrifice today are well known to God.

The ‘Christ Message’ is not just a matter of words it requires action – there is an old saying; ‘actions speak louder than words’. In the world today the Christ Message requires action as well as words. Never be afraid to stand firm for what you know to be true. It may take courage. Know that there is One who stands behind you with a strength that never fails – Jesus never leaves you. It is by coming through the tests that strength is gained to stand firm. You are an example to all with whom you come into contact. You will be able to carry that power of endurance to others who are struggling. You are a worker for God and of God. The work is only hindered when ‘Self’ comes first. Are you able to stand firm knowing that you are working for God!

If you are a Church Officer then you are not only working for yourself but for the whole congregation – for new people who come through the door, seeking help or guidance or understanding and even for those who no longer attend the services for whatever reason they give themselves. If you are having problems then please let us know.

The Greater World Mission in general terms is to spread in all directions the truth of survival after death; of spiritual communion – not psychic messages; of healing by the power of the Holy Spirit and to spread the Christ Message. (Which is: Love one another as I Love You).

God be with you all during these difficult times and remember that you never walk alone.

News from the Churches

Clarendon Road Sanctuary, Leeds

Loving blessings from all at the Leeds Greater World Sanctuary. We continue to enjoy our Sunday Afternoon Worship together and meet in the tearoom for refreshments after each Service. However, it is still important to be aware of the needs of other people and to keep sending out loving thoughts and healing blessings.

Our world is in great need at this moment in many different areas. So it is important to remember to send out healing prayers to all conditions. Many people are finding it hard and are at a loss as to how to cope. We have a knowledge through our understanding of Christian Spiritual values and know how to look to our Father God and His Son Jesus the Christ. We pray for all conditions, individuals and ourselves, knowing that prayers are heard and we feel the benefit.

The Greater World Family are doing whatever they can to help other people. The Distant Healing Group members are very active, doing as much as they can. We understand that we are never alone and that we have the promise of God – our Comforter; “I am with you always”. Our Father God knows us all; protects us; provides for us and rescues us - sending angels to watch over us. We gain much from our Bible reading; learning of the many uplifting accounts of adversity that give power and hope for the future.

We held an Afternoon of Private Sittings at the end of May which was supported by many visitors who took the opportunity to meet up with friends and family in the tea room over a cup of tea or coffee. Our popular Tombola Table was as busy as ever. Thank you to all who helped and participated.

At last we have had lovely warm, dry weather recently. I hope you have taken advantage of it to attend the many summer activities and sporting events etc. We hope that you continue to enjoy these summer months and build up your strength, stamina, energy and resources for the future. “Keep on keeping on”.

Angela and I organized a competition to name a large, soft knitted toy. We made £26.00 towards our funds

William the Sheriff was won by Mrs. Mary Marshall. Thank you to all who took part.

As the year rolls on we look forward to celebrating the 89th Anniversary Service commemorating the beginning of The Greater World Sanctuary in Leeds. We hope many will join in our celebrations.

My grateful thanks to Barry Sheridan for looking after the outside spaces and to you all who give love and time to keep the Sanctuary open.

Love and Healing Prayers are sent to you all. Keep safe and well.

Regarding Jesus of Nazareth

The birth and home-life of Jesus is often questioned. There is the 'story' in the Bible about His birth – which is not a 'story' but a fact. Why is it that the 'story' – fact - proves such a stumbling block to mankind. Why is it considered beyond the power of the One; the Father, who created the world in which we live; the heavens, other worlds and constellations and the construction of the physical body...

Not only did the Christ, by coming into the world, take on a burden of sorrow and of pain; but the girl who had the honour of being His mother, shared much of that pain and suffering. Do mothers today not watch the growth of their sons! How many of them ache to see their suffering, knowing that they cannot change anything!

Yet Mary had to be prepared for the part she had to take in the building up of spiritual history. Much of the experience in a spiritual sense took place before she commenced her earthly journey. It was important for the generation to come that she should be above reproach in all things. There is no incident when she failed either as a mother or wife – and there were many troubles and trials that came her way.

Joseph was a middle-aged man - Mary was a young girl – she was about 16 years old when Jesus was born. As the years went on Mary had several children by Joseph. From time to time there was real hardship and poverty in their home. The health of Joseph began to fail before the children were old enough to fend for themselves. The responsibility of providing for the family fell chiefly upon Jesus. This He carried out diligently until He was Thirty years of age. Then the life that he had been born to fulfil began.

The only way to obtain true wisdom is by the release of the Divine within; which is brought about by self-sacrifice. You can see that the hardships during the boyhood of Jesus were an essential part of the necessary training. If Jesus had obtained His knowledge from the minds of anyone else on earth His teaching would not have been greeted as a 'strange' doctrine. Certainly some of the students from the same order would have mixed among the people and taught similar truths.

In St. Luke we read that Jesus, being twelve years of age, was found in the Temple at Jerusalem, astonishing the teachers there by His understanding: then He went back to Nazareth with Mary and Joseph and 'was subject unto them'. Jesus showed great promise and the Spirit of God was manifested through Him. But, He was no less conscious of temptation because of this.

Those of you who have determined to tread the upper, steeper path, KNOW, that instead of temptation lessening in its power, it grows fiercer and fiercer as you climb. That fact must be brought into harmony with the spirituality shown by Jesus, even as a small child.

The child was tested and re-tested again and again. The severity of the training was not lessened for one step of the way.

His life story is available for you to read and understand right up to the day of crucifixion. His bearing during the trial was one more instance of man made perfect .. even as God is perfect. The great sign that should satisfy the doubting mind of humanity was supplied on the third day – when He rose again – and was seen by many before He finally bid them farewell. In the ‘things’ that pertain to God the final argument will be found, not in your mind, but in your heart. You who try to seek the good and forsake the evil, know in your hearts that the man Jesus was the promised Christ - and that He is God

It was God’s way of bringing Himself down in sympathy and experience with those who suffer upon the earth. Had He not done so He would have isolated Himself from those who mourn, those who labour and those who have found the path long and difficult.

Let this be a reassurance for all – that in worshipping the Christ, in following in the steps of Jesus and demonstrating the power of the Holy Ghost, you are indeed worshipping one God and one God only. He is separated from those other big prophets and messengers of God by this very difference – the manner of His life and the bearing of His trials and the resurrection.

Do not mistake the meaning. You are right to give honour where honour is due. Consider the life of the Master from childhood until the physical end and to compare it point by point with the life of any other teacher. You will find that the Christ stands alone. This is not about His miracles. It is about that simple, patient life of service; His great heart; His charity; His forgiveness – the perfection of Love. There you have your answer.

It was God’s way of bringing Himself down in sympathy and experience with those who suffer upon the earth. Had He not done so He would have isolated Himself from those who mourn, those who labour and those who have found the path long and difficult.

However, there is no belittling the great and holy lives of other teachers – their sacrifices and their self-discipline. Such as these are centred in Divine Love for evermore. Yet there was ONE Who was greater and simpler. Keep that word ‘simplicity’ in your minds because it expresses Love in its highest form. When every prophet shall be forgotten as such, Jesus the Christ will remain enshrined in the hearts of His children because He expresses Perfect Love.

In the unfoldment of the future, the Truth will be made plain to all. The time will come when every man, woman and child, when every creature created – and even those who for long periods have wandered far from God – shall worship Him Whom you call Jesus the Christ. Thus acknowledging His Godhead, making Him One with the Most High.

We offer our prayers in the name of Jesus, the Healer of all mankind

“O God, send down Thy Power – Thy Power, Thy Peace, Thy quieting influence – send down Thy Power so that Thy children, in faith, in hope, and in anticipation, may receive Thy Healing Power in abundance, each according to their need. Amen”

Healing Prayer

Loving Father, surround us in our time of need with Your love and healing blessing. Touch our hearts that they may may flow with Your love so that we may in turn send to those who are also in need. We know that the world is sick and suffering. Strengthen the workers, give comfort to those who are bereaved; and give succour to those who are hungry: Not only for earthly food but also for Thy love, that they may be comforted. Strengthen the workers: Though they may be tired and discouraged. Help them to pursue that pathway of loving and caring in the Light of the Christ so that all with whom they come into contact with feel the touch of Your Healing Hand and Loving Heart. So may peace be spread abroad. In the Name of Jesus the Christ, our Saviour. Amen

The Religion

You are not strangers to those who are around you. Your loved ones still care about your spiritual welfare. Your sorrows are known. Your joys are known. The anxieties that knock on your door which you have to deal with from the earthly point of view are known. It is called experience. When you are no longer in the earth body you will find that the dark days on earth have built up the bright days. Those that were seemingly bright days, with their transient pleasures, represent – in the Spirit Days – that often they are void of effort and of gain.

Around you, beyond your physical sight, are souls who have come for help. They wait for the light to penetrate their being and for their imprisonment to be no more.

So, with joy in our hearts and free from the restrictions of the earthly mind; it is a privilege to give all that we have and all that we are to the service of others. Bringing the Kingdom of Peace – not only to the earth, but in the many worlds and spheres about which you know so little at this stage. Greetings come to you from your loving families; from your guides and helpers; from the angels of the Most High. Feel that sense of joy that this gathering has been possible; that those unseen and those seen are for this short while linked together consciously for God's work – for the restoration of man to his high and lofty position.

NEW LIFE FOR OLD THOUGHTS

What is the Religion of the Future! At the very beginning you need to know that consciousness, that reassurance that this is merely to take you a step further towards the gates of revelation. You can go back upon your theories, your beliefs and your faiths and recharge them with a greater life than they ever had before.

of The Future

The Master said that He had not come to destroy – but to fulfil. This one – His servant – blessed by the Master when in the body of flesh – this servant of the Christ also comes, not to destroy but to fulfill; to give explanation, to close the wounds in the heart and mind and to free the starving soul within.

THE RELIGION OF THE FUTURE

There are some today who are saying within themselves: “The old paths, the old creeds are good enough for me. I do not want this so-called ‘sect’. I believe in Christ; I have my Bible and it is sufficient.” They know not what they say. Those of us who are able, come back in this way because you have misinterpreted, you have misunderstood, you have forgotten so much of what the Master came to teach. We do not want you to throw away anything that is in the New Testament. We want you to be consistent over your religion. Take the words of the Bible to heart and read into them the true meaning – the meaning which the Father intends.

THE COURAGE TO TEST SPIRITUAL LAWS

Did not Christ say: “He that believeth in Me shall not see death?” Then how can you reflect those words? The new religion, the religion of the future is this – and although there may be thousands who deny these words, they shall in time come to see that these words are true – the religion of the future is a grander, stronger belief in the beautiful words of Jesus the Christ and more than that, the courage shall come to men and women to test the promises of God. To those who name themselves His representatives the courage shall come as well not only to preach and teach, but to put into practice those spiritual laws which, if tested honestly, sincerely, are found to be true.

Hearken to these words. Allow the Light to penetrate into your being. There has never been a man or woman who has put God first and the material world second who has not found that God is far more generous than those upon the earth.

Do you not know that if the preachers and the teachers had been willing to sacrifice themselves as the disciples sacrificed themselves then today war would be unknown; poverty would not exist; secret quarrels would be impossible and all the troubles which beset your path today would have passed like a dark cloud centuries ago.

There have been many teachers and preachers but the lamp of their faith has burned low; they were not willing to take the words of the Christ and test them; they were not willing to take no heed of 'tomorrow'; nor to prepare their words but to allow the Holy Spirit to inspire them – to take up their cloak and to pass to the north, to the south, to the east and the west – depending all the time on God.

A MISTAKE THAT IS MADE TODAY

Hearken to these words. Allow the Light to penetrate into your being. There has never been a man or woman who has put God first and the material world second who has not found that God is far more generous than those upon the earth. The mistake that is made today – and it has been made over the centuries – is this: Those who have possessions so often fear to share those possessions with others. They give much thought to ensure or to endeavor to ensure the material - and offer only their spare moments to the spiritual. Then, when things go wrong they ask themselves: “What has happened?”

The answer is this: Because man has put his full reliance upon the things of the earth, Divine protection has not been there; thus sorrow has drawn close and anxiety like a whip with many cords has seared the soul of man groping through the darkness; understanding hardly anything of true life!

The religion of the future will do away with all because it is the religion of Jesus the Christ, our Lord; the religion that man has taken up and then cast down; which man has preached but so often has forgotten to practice, which many of the representatives of the Most High have almost lost faith in themselves.

You may say; “I want to be a faithful servant of the Christ but my life is too full of care.” I have prayed – but my prayers have not been answered. I have come to say goodbye to the one I loved the best. As I stood by the grave the thought came; “Can there be a God of Love when my loved one lies there?” Strengthening the self, sending back the thought; trying to believe; yet the loved one is still gone, the heart is lonely and full of pain and the days are full of that which I wish was not there.

God understands all these thoughts. The Christ knew pain that you could never endure. He was far more sensitive than any other upon the earth. It is because of these happenings, because catastrophes overtake man, that those who have passed into the Light and have seen something of the great purpose and plan are allowed to come back and make contact with those on the earth. There are thousands and thousands of faithful servants of God seeking to make contact, seeking to impinge upon the physical mind something of illumination, some conception of the ramifications of Divine Love. But man will not listen. Man has far more faith in his books and his electronic gadgets than he has in the power of the Holy Spirit to bring humanity back to God and peace to a troubled world.

WHAT THE RELIGION OF THE FUTURE WILL BE

The religion of the future will be this – so simple – so like that which the Master taught and demonstrated so many years ago – the religion of the future will be a full and comprehensive belief in the Love of God and in the words of Jesus the Christ. Man will go back to the Sacred Book. He will not allow his mind to be coerced by those who have limited knowledge. He will not allow his judgement to be influenced by those who have not the light of revelation within them. Man will go back to the Sacred Book. He will take that laid down by the Master and not only preach but – more importantly – put it into practice – so that others can see it for themselves. In that time the rigid ideas, all the dogma which man himself has created and into which he has thrust the jewel of the Christ Truth, all that will be seen as the useless packing it represents.

Then the new religion, which is the true religion of Christ will make all things clear. There will be no more sighing, no more tears. The veil between the physical and the spiritual will be rent in twain and you will be able to watch the progress of that one you love so well who has left the body of flesh to take on a garment of light. You will see the sweet face, you will hear the tender voice. There will be nothing to separate you but conditions and by “conditions” means – your own lack of spiritual evolution or progress. You will be – as it were – able to stretch out your hands to the angels of God and to feel upon you the power of the Holy Spirit and so inspired, so recharged, you will allow the things of the earth which once held you to go back where they belong – into the dust. Then the Divine within will be able to function as God intends.

HOW THE HUMBLEST CAN PERFORM MIRACLES

The way that these miracles can be brought about is so simple – so exactly like the Love of God. The weakest and the frailest physically can do as much as the strongest. The child can be as great as a mother or father. This is because the Law of God is a law of equality, because God loves each one in the same inclusive way. The way to bring miracles to pass upon the earth is as God laid down - by taking up your cross and following the steep path up the hill to spiritual achievement; the lending of your aid to others; when all effort seems useless – it is the sure and certain knowledge of the love of God that keeps the body going, when it calls for rest – and doing to your neighbour what you would that he/she should do to you.

If only man could realise that in the phrase; “service to others” – lie words of doing, of achievement, of creation which are hidden from his consciousness at this time. Within you is God and the powers of God in miniature are stored there. How many of these divine gifts are you using today?

Material cares absorb so much of your attention. How many of your divine gifts are you using today? So, so few! Yet, you are the children of the resurrection. You are the children of the true light. What has gone wrong? You have been wrongly taught. The new religion, which is the Christ religion has been laid aside for man’s religion, man’s interpretation and the interpretation has been tinged by self. You cannot deny these words.

SACRIFICE PAYS

There are those with thinking minds; those who want to have a logical foundation for their beliefs. Is it the most practical course to endeavour to secure today and to neglect tomorrow! OR - in other words – to draw to yourselves - throughout your physical life – that which represents happiness and comfort and then after this short earth life to find yourselves in a poverty that is extreme. You are free from the earthly body but still chained to earthly things – now you know that there are those who had only the same opportunities as your own who are almost like angels of the Light! They are free beings and imprinted on them is their divinity for all to see. But you are like the ones that have been stricken dumb and blind and you cannot make progress because through free-will you threw the Cross – the staff of life – away!

There is no condemnation. You are being offered a sweeter, brighter better way. You are being impressed with the knowledge that even from the most practical point of view sacrifice pays and pays and pays. Mothers, who practice patience in the home, tend their young by denying themselves are drawing to themselves the treasures of heaven. Because they are faithful over a few things they shall find themselves as the guardians over many. Those whom you love, and who love you, who have passed through the gate of physical death – and there are countless numbers – are always around you; a vast army working for the Christ; trying to impress upon you that there is no death; that the worlds of Jesus are LITERALLY true: “He that believeth in Him shall not see death but have life more abundantly and still even more abundantly as time goes on”.

THE RESPONSIBILITY OF POSSESSING AN ABLE MIND

God requires practical men and women. Some of the scientists are proving themselves as foolishness itself because they think that they have found a better way than that laid down by the Master of all life.

*There is no condemnation.
You are being offered a sweeter, brighter better way. You are being impressed with the knowledge that even from the most practical point of view

Trouble in many forms has fallen upon mankind. Out of the trouble, out of the crucifixion, so the power shall be gathered to bring about the resurrection of man as a child of God. Then, the heartaches shall die down, the tears shall be stemmed and the complaints shall no more be heard.

They want and they get: they seek the things of the earth and the earth like a mountain is piled around them. If only those with able minds had sought to put into practice the teaching of Jesus then today the children of earth would be able to heal at a touch; to give sight to the blind; to straighten the limbs of those who are lame – even as the disciples of old. But No! Man wants the knowledge of the earth. Thus the wisdom of the Spirit is far from him.

Trouble in many forms has fallen upon mankind. Out of the trouble, out of the crucifixion, so the power shall be gathered to bring about the resurrection of man as a child of God. Then, the heartaches shall die down, the tears shall be stemmed and the complaints shall no more be heard. Out of the waters of adversity so man shall climb on to the shore. The shore is God's Land and over and above shines the Light which is of Him and the Light shall indeed draw Him out of that which once held and because of the suffering, because of the going without, because of the misunderstanding, the power shall come for men and women to be as pilgrims held by Love.

IS THE RELIGION OF CHRIST;

not only to be spoken about but to be put into practice. The religion of the future is the testing of the promises of God. If a man only tests the promises of God with a contrite heart, seeking to do his best, he shall find to his exceeding comfort that God never fails. While the body holds so often man forgets to struggle. When he falls he feels that it is useless to try and rise again. Yet, if the eyes were opened he would see the angels of God pleading with us: “Come on, come on, the lights are just in front.” All man sees are of the earth – earthy – he does not hear the tender voice until it is too late: Too late to rectify during the earth stage; but never too late for the Father to meet His son and draw him out of all that presses down upon him.

ANOTHER KIND OF RETRIBUTION

Some are ready for the message. Others are still questioning as to whether it is true or all imagination. The time will surely come when every word that has been uttered shall be proved true by spiritual experience. In that time you must face the truth. You will no longer have the earthly body to act as a screen between yourselves and the reality of God.

There are no dead! Those who have passed through the gates of physical death come back to you. You seem to them. By the silence and lack of response, to be entombed in very truth. When you are free in turn you must suffer in like manner if you did not believe in the words of the Christ; they also are exercising their free will and they do not believe the words of Christ that there is no death. So you will pass, solitary, on your way.

Pray that the seeds which have been sown on earth this day and every day will bear fruit. If not in this life, then in the life to come. There is not one man or one woman who shall not see for himself or herself that the little seed so planted can never die. That which is of God lives forever more. That which is of the Soul knows only change throughout eternity: Changing from the lesser into the greater, from the weaker into the stronger.

THE THINNING OF THE VEIL

Prepare your hearts and minds for the religion of the future and allow nothing to step in your path. In the degree that you put the material before God's Truth you shall fail – even materially while the body is on earth. Test the promises of God. Believe in the words of the Christ. In this way, day by day, the veil shall become thinner and thinner. Then at last the light of revelation shall stream upon you and you will see the Christ face to face.

You are blessed with the will to strive. You are blessed with something of a realisation so that you may not waste time but hasten forward into the Kingdom; into the land blest by the power of the Holy Spirit. The image of a gold cross is always with you as a sign of protection for those who put God first. The future shall open before you in a way that your mind cannot grasp at this time – if only you will allow the Light that streams from the Cross to recharge your being. There are great things in store just waiting your swift advance.

Peace, joy and the love of God which never fails be with you all today and throughout the years that lie in front.

MISS WINIFRED MOYES devoted her life to acting as the sole instrument for the inspired teachings of 'Zodiac' who in his earthly life was a teacher in the Temple of Jerusalem at the time of Jesus. He chose the name 'Zodiac' to lift men's thoughts from the earth to the heavens'. Zodiac delivered 1,475 addresses between 1924 and 1957 at meetings which often attracted thousands of people. The teachings continued to inspire those enquiring into the meaning and purpose of life, the function of the natural gifts of Healing and Spirit Communion, and the reassurance of the immortality of the Spirit. Zodiac named his great work 'The Christ Mission', and it is upon this that The Greater World is founded.

The Changing Lot of Man

It is necessary to bring spiritual understanding to the mind which you must use, seeking to release the Divinity that is within. There have been those who state that mankind came from the animal – yet today there are those to prove this false. Those who are free know that the words chronicled in the Holy Bible indeed portray a glorious truth. Man was created in the Image of the Divine and was given the same great gifts, in miniature, possessed by the Creator. In this way he might show that he indeed is a son of God and an inheritor of eternal life.

Sadly, as time passed by, these simple truths, often given in parable form, were pushed aside as of little worth. There were those who claimed to have able minds who stated that they had something that would prove the folly of such doctrines because of the discoveries they had made. Yet it has been proved that the vanity that held the mind of man was but a reflection from those planes where the light of the Holy Spirit has been ruled out.

Man's lot changes during the many lives that he undergoes; bodies terrestrial and bodies celestial. Can you not see where you have been led? Can you not grasp the journey that has already been traversed: Cannot you see that you are emerging out of the traveller stage and are becoming a pilgrim of the Light?

If the Lord Creator can do so much for Nature why should He not be able to do the same for man! There are those who have proved that not only are the promises kept – those promises are written in the Bible.

There are, however, great things which their finite minds cannot grasp but which the Infinite Spirit within can come to understand. The individual Soul comes into the world naked and alone; in charge of itself. No one, not even God, can give man tuition for the soul if the one concerned refuses to learn the lessons that it came to learn.

The limit of life is dependant upon the lessons which the soul has come to learn. Sometimes the life is long and sometimes it is short. Everyone must pass out of the physical body and emerge into a wider field of realisation. The tools of the earthly mind cannot be taken with them.

No one can take the treasures of the earth or the delights of the physical body with them. This is where the justice of God comes into its own.

The changing lot of man. You are created in the Divine Image. You bore likeness to your loving Father, Creator. As you undertook your journey of experience you lost something of your brightness; yet you gained by the lessons learned. You were making something of the divine gift of experience – by suffering, by learning the lessons and refusing to fall. As time went by you became sufficiently evolved to undertake the experiences of this world. Yet it is only a short stage – but a stage that is important.

You know right from wrong. You are sensitive to so much. You have a mind that will do your bidding. You have a body that can be controlled in part. You are finding out about the power that is in you.

You know that you have a living soul. You know that physical death cannot touch the real self within. You are here because Soul consciousness is your – in part.

Does it seem to you that one who lived on earth so many years ago cannot understand the sorrows which you bear in heart and mind? Believe! They are understood. Those in the world of Spirit are well aware of what you are going through. You are all linked together by the tie of the service to God. It is your training, your learning, your experiences and how you cope with all life; how you think and what you do. Walking in the Kingdom of God daily; learning His ways and carrying out His work will prove to you when you leave the earth behind that you are taking your way into the planes of Light.

The changing lot of man. You are created in the Divine Image. You bore likeness to your loving Father, Creator. As you undertook your journey of experience you lost something of your brightness; yet you gained by the lessons learned.

Who do you think will be the ones to find themselves with the power if God's Land? There are uncountable men and women, weary and tired, who did not give up when there was work to be done. When they passed into the Light they were seen to be the ones with the power.

Who do you think will be the ones to find themselves with the power if God's Land? There are uncountable men and women, weary and tired, who did not give up when there was work to be done. When they passed into the Light they were seen to be the ones with the power. They did not push aside the thought of rest; did not tend the sick when they themselves were unwell;

they encouraged the young. The recompense is sure. The so-called wise ones and the successful ones pass out of this world and are horrified by the poverty of their lot.

The only way to gain the possessions which you never have to cast aside is the way laid down by the Master, Jesus the Christ and taken so faithfully Himself.

The changing lot of man! The hard road that leads to light and freedom or the road of self which takes the traveller into a world of misunderstanding – there to roam until someone draws near to rescue them.

While you are in the body you know very little about true affection. You love those who give you satisfaction, whether of the mind, the body or the eye. When you are free all that you thought you knew is torn asunder. Then we love in a similar way that God loves. Can you imagine that wonderful awakening! Your whole being is concentrated on.... saving those whom we love from making the same mistakes. You want to give them wisdom while they are still in the earthly body; to change their sense of values from the earth sense of values to God's values. Thus when they are free from the chains of physical life they will be free from the chains of physical desire.

To those who are troubled; to those who have fought the long fight of pain or discomfort and think that they have to give up because the forces are too strong: Know that when the physical body passes from you your lot shall change also. All those things which seemed so hard, all those things which you turn from in a physical sense yet have to do; they shall line the path which you must take, as gifts, as powers, as the sweet flowers of the Holy Spirit, won by you in the past – they will be your own for ever more.

You who have a hard life are the fortunate ones. You will find that your lot has changed for the better. Those who were selfish, those who held to their own possessions and refused to help their neighbour – their lot will change when their time has come – but for the worse. The body that you try to preserve; the mind that you so admire; these will not be your own in the life to come. You will have a body that seems cruder and a mind that has everything to learn.

Angel voices echo through the past. They are of those who indeed centred in the Light of God. What of the saints and the martyrs; what of the fishermen on the Lake of Galilee? They are the powerful ones in this time. Despised, destroyed, physically, they come and give to others that which they won by faithfulness under dreadful strain.

Angel voices echo through the past. They are of those who indeed centred in the Light of God. What of the saints and the martyrs; what of the fishermen on the Lake of Galilee? They are the powerful ones in this time. Despised, destroyed, physically, they come and give to others that which they won by faithfulness under dreadful strain.

During one generation the thought of the world seems to run one way. As time passes views change. What is "right" in one time is wrong in another. What was "liberty" changes from liberty into bondage by the abuse of that same gift. What was bondage is seen by those with true sight to be freedom ... freedom from that which had its hold.

This is the message to pondering man. This is the message to the doubters, to the sneerers; to those who think that the mental way is the only way that man should follow. Remember the changing lot of man!

By the instinct of sacrifice, by the sweet emotion of love, by the compassion, by the stifling of the word of complaint, by the courage under attack, by refusing to be daunted, you are preparing for yourself that which shall never pass away. Therefore, those who love you and seem to have left you for a while say to you: "Work on, strive on! The pains of the earth life are as strong armour in the life to come."

The good thoughts open the gates of revelation; the compassionate thoughts clear the away those mental obstacles that litter the earthy path. Know that you have within you Divinity – all strength, all knowledge, all wisdom; all health; all love: But – the only way to release those precious gifts is the simple way, the straight and simple way laid down by the Christ. Seek and you will find; climb and the hill of spiritual attainment shall indeed be scaled at last. Pray, as you pray always remember to work. Then the time will come for you when joy and peace and understanding and the liberty of God's Land will be yours in all its sweetness and all its power.

Over you is the power of the Holy Spirit gifted to you by God, the Giver of all good things. Take the gift and let it comfort you over the sorrows of daily life. Remember how Jesus suffered; remember how Mary, the mother, had to stand and see her Son destroyed by hate; remember Stephen, how he was stoned and how heaven seemed to open before his wondering gaze; remember those who met together in caves of long ago; remember also the soldiers who sought for them

Seek and you will find; climb and the hill of spiritual attainment shall indeed be scaled at last. Pray, as you pray always remember to work. Then the time will come for you when joy and peace and understanding and the liberty of God's Land will be yours in all its sweetness and all its power.

It is true, you climb on the efforts of others. You, now, have to think about the coming generations. It is necessary that the young today and those as yet unborn, are able to look back and say; “My parents, my forbears, they contributed to the Light and I am indebted to them.”

and who tortured them to death. Physical death; Yes! But they could not kill the Truth.

By sacrifice entailed so the Lamp of Truth gained strength. By the patience, by the willingness to endure in the long ago you, today, have Spirit consciousness. If they had failed, you would be as barbarians knowing nothing but the desires of the flesh and all that means.

It is true, you climb on the efforts of others. You, now, have to think about the coming generations. It is necessary that the young today and those as yet unborn, are able to look back and say; “My parents, my forbears, they contributed to the Light and I am indebted to them.” By that which they see it shall be shown to them that the path which lies before them is to do likewise; they too are asked to make full surrender for Jesus the Christ; to put in those extra stones up the rough hillside so that others may climb in turn.

This is the future. By pursuing the path the world has the opportunity to grow into enhanced glory. This is done by men and women with limited lives. By men and women who sought to do their duty in the home or in the wider field of toil. For what a man is spiritually, that can only leave its sweet mark in the Realms of Light.

There lies ahead of you wider realms of work and being. There shall come to those with faith, with sure and certain knowledge of the love of God, not only the desire to do the work but the sweet opportunity to build for God. Therefore, in spirit thank the Giver of all good things. Ask that you may indeed be as an empty vessel so that through you the power of God can be poured out in unstinted measure.

Peace be unto you in the Name of our Saviour – Jesus the Christ

*I am the true vine, and my Father is the labourer;
Every branch in me that does not bear fruit, he cuts off;
And the ones which bear fruit, he prunes, so that they may bring forth more fruit. You have already been pruned because of the Word which I have spoken to you. Remain with Me and I with you.*

Just as a branch cannot give fruit by itself unless it remains in the vine, Without me, you cannot bear fruit.

*I am the vine, you are the branches.
He who remains with me, and I with him,
Will bear abundant fruit;
For without Me you can do nothing.
Unless a man remains with Me, he will be cast outside
Like a branch which is withered,
Which they pick up and throw in the fire to be burned.
If you remain with Me and My words remain with you,
Whatever you ask shall be done for you.
In this the Father will be glorified,
That you bear abundant fruit and be my disciples.
Just as My Father has loved Me,
I also have loved you;
Abide in My love.*

*If you keep My commandments;
You will abide in My love,
Even as I have kept My Father's commandments
And abide in His love.*

*I have spoken these things to you
That My joy may be in you
And that your joy may be full.
This is My commandment:
That you love one another
Just as I have loved you.*

*There is no greater love than this;
That a man lay down his life for his friends.
You are My friends if you do everything that I command you.
Henceforth, I will not call you servants,
Because a servant does not know what his master does;
But I have always called you my friends because everything I heard from My Father I have made known to you.*

Jesus, when He saw the multitudes He had compassion on them because they were tired out and scattered like sheep which had no shepherd.

So He said to His disciples: "The harvest is great and the labourers few; Therefore urge the owner of the harvest to bring more labourers to his harvest."
